

FARMHOUSE

SYRACUSE

The gracious portico that bids one welcome to this elegant residence offers the first hint of an extraordinary interior design, one that beckons back to a more genteel style of living.

Accentuating this design is a first-floor plan featuring a long entrance foyer adjacent to a formal dining room, completely separated from the comfortable living room and hearth at the rear of the house by a central hallway. Just beyond the foyer, a spacious and efficient kitchen showcases an angled peninsula with counter seating. From the cheery breakfast room, sliding glass doors open onto a private, covered deck (or optional sunroom).

A conveniently accessible powder room is located across the hall from the kitchen.

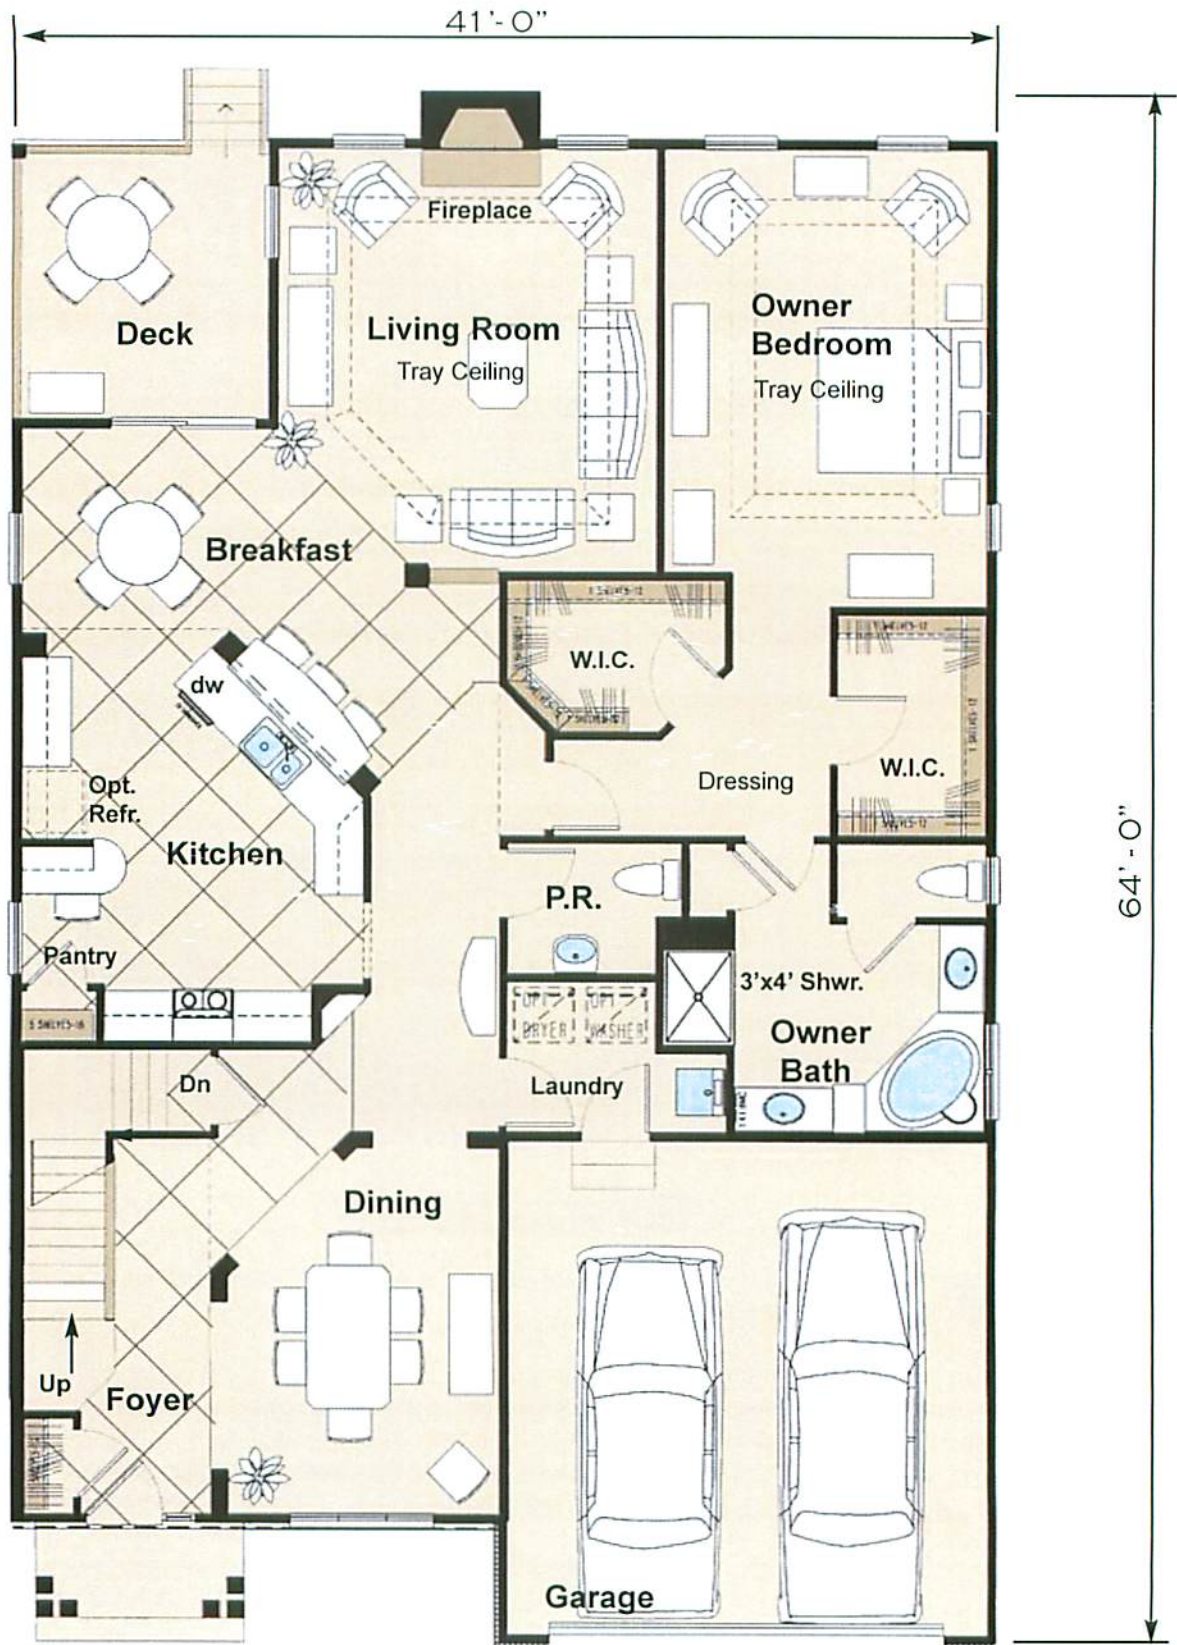

On the opposite side of the home's central hall, the private owner's suite features a dressing room, two walk-in closets and a full bath featuring a soaking tub, separate shower and dual wash basins. On the second floor, a separate bedroom and full bath comprise a private guest suite. The adjoining loft is ideal for a home office, library, hobby space or storage. Available in traditional, manor or farmhouse elevations, the Syracuse includes as standard a full basement and two-car garage with an interior entry.
